02 – Product Description

NorthMed Date & Peanut Spread combines two complementary profiles: the naturally caramelised sweetness of Deglet Nour date syrup and the intense notes of roasted peanuts.

Its smooth texture facilitates spreading, dosing and incorporation into various preparations. It can be consumed directly at breakfast or as a snack, but can also be used as a filling, garnish or ingredient in bakery, pastry and dessert recipes.

Available in conventional or organic quality depending on the product reference, supplier and availability.
